Monash University Library Search for web sites

The Library Search contains web sites in most disciplines. If you are looking for web sites on “history of Australia”, click the Library Search (http://monash.edu/library/search).

- From the basic search
- Type your search terms. For example, history of Australia *
- Refine results by selecting the options on the left, if “Web Sites” is not showing, click “More options”. Then, tick the “include” box of “Web Sites” and click “Continue” to open the results

*If you type keywords as history Australia, it shows different results. Try different combination to get different results.